MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY OF THE DAY.

To Sheep-farmers and the Public in general.

F. C. Calvert's Phenyline & Terebane.

The great specific Medicine specifics have enjoyed in England on account of their extraordinary success in all cases where they have been applied, has induced the proprietor to introduce them in this market on account of the intrinsic sheep farming interest of the country. The public always anxious to obviate in future the enormous losses they sustain yearly, not only in the Southern etc.

Cows, distempers, as "all diseases of the hoofs."

Powerful cures in horses resulting from accident and "of all general Veterinary purposes" these remedies are sure. Phenyline is found to be remarkably successful in the Hospitals of England for curing Cancer, Leprosy, and also used for preserving hides, skins and bones from all vermin, and, insects, the parcels already treated with it in this city and Montevideo have received the approval of purchasers in England who report them to be very superior to every thing else. The leather made from the hides is also declared to be superior in every respect.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 28 1865.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

We are happy to be able to announce that the engineers of this line did not leave yesterday in the Mersey.

Their resolution to remain appears to have been adopted in consequence of several interviews which took place with the Government the day before yesterday: and, if we are correctly informed, the Government expressed an opinion that their determination to leave at this moment would be highly inopportune

The steamer left, therefore, which appeared in our columns of yesterday' that the examining commission had already reported unfavourably is evidently incorrect.

We notice the publication of the contract in the Tribuna of yesterday, and although the opinion of the press has been unanimously expressed in favor of its approval, public opinion is still further strengthened since its appearance.

It affords us pleasure to observe that the views so frequently emitted in this paper are now generally adopted; and knowing as we do the soundness of the undertaking, and it being evident after a careful perusal of the contract that the Directors have well fulfilled their duty in securing the interests both of the shareholders and the government, we have full confidence that the approval of it being once granted, the country will be well satisfied with the speedy acquisition of a first-class railroad, and the shareholders amply rewarded for the patience which this delay has caused them to display.

MONTEVIDEO.

Mr. Mackinlay, Argentine Consul-General, publishes an official notice warning all his fellow-citizens from taking up arms on either side in the Oriental war. The 'Telegrafo' report, the arrival of the Vanderbilt at Rio Janeiro, in cases of the Alabama and associates: she carries 15 heavy guns, is well equipped, and a fast sailer, having made the trip from Gaudaloupe in 24 days. Wilkes is the name of her commander (being still retained at Havannah), but one Mr. C. H. Baldwin, who vainly crubed about near Trinidad looking for Semmes.

The Saintonge arrived in Rio Janeiro on the 14th inst. The Tucantins suffered a few scratches, running on a bank lately, but, after careful examination no injury was found. Cholera prevails in the north of Brazil. A vessel with fire-arms was seized at Pernambuco, where there was rumour of an intended emeute at the elections.

There is no news about Flores since his retreat from before Tacuarembo. On the 17th the filibusters crossed the Arroyo Tacuarembo, and marched towards Tambores, with the probable intention of making a diversion on Paysandu. Colonel Pinilla visited Admiral Murature on board the Guardia Nacional, and was received with a salute of seven guns. Tacuarembo is said to be surrounded by 2,000 men, and Flores is expected to arrive there with reinforcements. Rivera is said to be somewhere in the Banda Oriental, but will not be permitted. The Pampero is lying in front of Concordia having taken up the San Juan lanchas to complete the clearance of the Corralito rocks.

EDITOR'S TABLE

Readers will be glad to learn that Mr. Rumbull, who is the Engineer of the Great Southern Railway Company, has not left by the packet, but will remain a few days longer, at the request of the Government.

A Cretan House has lost at length been passed, and now only awaits the President's signature to become a law; after which, on being published in fifteen days, it comes into operation The Senate carried the point of taxing books, as well as printing materials.

Friends from the camp inform us towards Lobos and the Villa Vista that the grass is coming round beautifully, and farmers look forward to a good spring.

The largest mail ever made up in our office was yesterday's—700 Packet editions, 650 Weeklies, and a quantity of bank numbers: including those sent by English and other mercantile houses, the Mersey takes probably 3,000 copies. This increase is accounted for by the number of new concessions, &c, for the battle of Pavon did not cause half this demand.

The long-talked-of contract of Messrs. Pato Betts has been published in yesterday's 'Tribuna.' People can judge for themselves now, as to the nature of this document and the absurb objections put forward by the committee. This road is so popular that had the attorneys called a public meeting they might have proved to the Government the people are unanimous for it's road, and nothing but the road,

Owing to the hurry in despatching papers for the packet, we forgot to call our reader's attention to the great Orono question. Sor. Orono has been most fiercely attacked by the 'National' on the national debt question: the most scandulous personalities our evening colleague, as usual, makes use of. Sor. Orono, however, speaks the plain open truth, and no matter what the bonds, bills, and vouchers were given for, they must not now be repudiated. His last letter to the proprietor of the 'National' was a regular thunderer, which we regret, for want of room, we are unable to publish.

We congratulate our colleague, the 'Nacion Argentina,' upon its able review in French for this packet: it was decidedly the best written of all our colleagues, and will be read with interest abroad.

MR. HOPKINS' CANAL CONCESSION.

THE SENATE AND CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES, &c.

Art. 1st. Mr. Edward A. Hopkins is hereby authorised to form within or without the country a joint stock limited company for the canalisation of the Arroyo del Pajaro, between the Parana de las Palmas and Lujan river, opposite the town of San Fernando with a mole, warehouses, and deposit stores, suitable to the requirements of the coasting craft of the upper rivers.

Art. 2. The capital of the company shall not exceed one million five hundred thousand hard silver dollars.

Art 3. The company may charge the tolls, mole and deposit dues which it shall judge fit, for the term of twenty years, provided that the receipts do not exceed the sum of eighteen per cent nett profit on the capital mentioned in the preceding article, when the works are finished, and before the terminated, to the same on the capital which has been actually expended.

Art. 4. The 'Arroyo del Capitan' shall be canalized and improved according to the plans presented by the concessionaire and approved of by the Government; and shall have at least eighteen metres in breadth throughout its whole length at the surface, and three metres in depth at mean tide.

Art. 5th. The dues payable for the use of the canal shall only be to over able in proportion to its cost, which must not exceed the sum of three hundred and seventy eight thousand four hundred and twelve hard silver dollars according to the estimates of the concessionaire for its proper construction, and all besides the annual expenses of keeping it in order: but first the dues shall only be recoverable on vessels which may pass by the canal after the works are finished, according to the preceding article; and secondly, by all vessels under three tons, or two hundred and forty arrobes burden shall be exempted.

6th During the time of this concession the company engages to preserve the canal works in the state mentioned in the article 4, under a penalty of a sum not greater than the sum total of the receipts, from the partial destruction of such works, which may occur and commenced, excepting fortuitous cases, or those commonly known as 'de force majeure.'

7th. At the expiration of the twenty years mentioned in article 3d, the canal shall be free from all the company's dues, and the company obliges itself to transfer the canal in perfect order and term, on the Government paying the cost of repairs.

8th. At any time during the period of the concession the Government shall have the right of expropriating the canal works for the benefit of the public, on the value of their cost, and not, at 25 per cent extra as indemnification, in which case the company shall be equitly bound to effect the transfer mentioned in the preceding article.

9th. If on account of the future extension of the coasting trade, the concession shall be modified or abolished, without any prejudice to the interests of commerce a tariff for the working of the canal and deposits, which may give a nett income of 18 per cent on the capital, including the cost of the canal; the latter shall be free of all dues, and the company shall always finish for the obligation in the two preceding articles, in respect of repairs.

10. The company shall construct and maintain a telegraph, from the mouth of the canal to the Palmas river to the mole, and from the mole on the latter a maritime telegraph, to announce the arrivals of ships. It shall also establish, in the mouth of said canal, bell signals for the pilots which shall be duly served by the company.

11. The moles communcing at the mouth of the canal of San Fernando, shall each 1800 metres in the one ward, along the course of the Lujan river, on the beach of the town of San Fernando and shall have at the side always at mean tide, with the course of the river, which depth, up to the canal of the outer river, the company engages itself to preserve.

12. Sufficient warehouses and deposits shall be constructed on the moles, for the accommodation of at least 48,000 tons of measurement goods. The Government has the right at all times to rent, for the use of the state, such warehouses which may require, under the conditions of this contract.

13. The moles shall have sufficient elevation to prevent accidents from the highest tides, and a sufficient space for the free passage of the waggons of the Northern Railway

14. The company shall have the regulate manner of distribution for the service of the moles and canal

15. It shall place [with the approval of the Government, respecting their proper situation] the necessary lights for navigation: to wit, one near San Isidro, with a radius of light of two hundred miles eastwards, and another at each mouth of the canal, with a radius of five miles, which lights shall be duly attended to, and shall be considered as a part of the canal, and in respect of the provisions of articles 7, 8 and 9, or until the Government shall take it up on its own account, paying its cost to the company.

16. The works stipulated in this concession shall commence within the space of twelve months from the date of celebration of the contract between the government and concessionary with the exception of fortuitous or cases de force majeure, which shall be considered as a party of the contract, under penalty of the invalidation of this concession.

17. During the construction of the works allowed by this concession, and at all times, the engineer of the government shall have full power to inspect closely all the objects and matters joining the due fulfilment of the stipulations

18. The materials, machinery and tools for the construction and working of this enterprise, shall be free of all import duties and of any other contribution during the period of 20 years mentioned in Art. 3

19. The government shall have the right of intervention in the tariff, when the company shall begin to receive more than exceed the established rate of 18 per cent, having the right to nominate a comptroller or commissioner, who shall take a part with the representatives or accountants of the company, in the semi-annual balance of the books.

20. The company shall present its statutes for the approval of the government, and in the case of its nominations out of the republic, must necessarily establish in the city of Buenos Ayres a lawful agent to represent it in all it relations.

21. It shall also keep in the same city a register for the transfer of shares within the Republic, and in which the company shall pay the corresponding dividends of said shares: it being understood that shareholders residing in the republic shall have the right of being represented by power of attorney at the general meetings of the company.

22d. Any question arising between the Government and the company shall be decided by arbitrators appointed in the usual manner in accordance with the laws of the country.

23. The executive power shall make public contract of the bases and provisions contained in the present law.

24. Let it be communicated, &c.

Chief [reassured]—Proceed with the case

1st Vigilante—Your Highness this man is charged with committing a cruel murder at the corner of a street, on Cuna Costa Diva, whose mangled remains are being borne about the town by boys whistling brutally (sensation

Dogberry [to chief]—What have you got to say to the charge?

Gaetano—Why, I suffer from an organic defect arising from damp weather, and my maker only is accountable for my false improvements, besides, I thought you did not occupy yourself with murders

Dogberry—Ah, that's in the camp. (To vigilante)—Did you say you could secure the coming?

1st Vigilante—I can myself unable to take up a tune, but I believe the remains are in a tolerable state of preservation, in the hands of one Mollo at the Colon Theatre

Dogberry—Ah! now I see the nature of this crime (much relieved) It is a liveable offence [addressing prisoner solemnly]—Sir, you must live in harmony with the people, and not attempt to shoot the municipality

Prisoner—(Who appeared to feel the painful position he stood in with the weight of crime and the organ on his back)—but I was only grinding

Dogberry—Silence! I allow no grinder but myself. You are fined 20 dollars each, and must pay for two hours at the rate of 5 dollars confined to the room of mauves on your organ, and a local on your tongue; don't come here calumniating our climate and blaming the weather for your crimes. The weather is good: if you don't think so, come on the worst day in the year, and you will always find it at five day here.—(Kennet Cames.)

P.S. Our devil has just come in with the copy in his hand and says, Please Sir, should it be 5 Dogberry, because of the hydrophobia furnace? And you know, sir, he also was written down an A—. [We can him short with an inkstand]. That boy will be the death of us.

THE BRAZILIAN DIFFICULTY.

The 'Morning Herald' strongly condemns the government policy regarding Brazil

The 'Daily News' thinks that we have not acted quite fairly in the matter, and trusts it may be settled amicably.

The 'Morning Post' says the Brazilian Government is the best in South America, but is not altogether without anomalies. It has yet to prove that sovereign states are not free to violate engagements deliberately entered into, and to wantonly indulge their anger upon to satisfy the claims of other states as independent as themselves.

BRAZIL IN THE PEERS.

If the friends of a dignified and decorous diplomacy, such as the Chancellor of the Exchequer, in the House of Commons, declare it strong becoming to England, and such as Earl Russell more fully expounded when reprobating the Yeh embroilment, were satisfied with the discussion in the Commons on the Pendalva dispute, how much reason have they for contentment with Lord Clarendon's defiance, on the same subject in the Upper House. In the latter's exposition of the facts of the case, and Lord Chelmsford's elucidation of the law, as bearing on those facts, were as conclusive a refutation of the conduct of the Foreign Office simple as, in the first instance, was that of the Government. It was consequently, that case in perforce, driven to the conjecture thrown out by the latter noble lord, that there must have been a premeditated malice in bringing the acrimonious issue arrived at. For however repulsive such an hypothesis may be, still more irreconcilable with any intelligible theory of the proceedings as opposed to international usages, and so contrary to commercial precedent and obligations—as blinding ideal dangers for a ship—should have been so pertinaciously followed out, and the door, whilst even the foreign Secretary seemed occasionally disposed to open to amicable adjudication so studious closed by Mr Christie, apparently in obedience to some occult and sinister influences extraneous to his legitimate sphere, and paramount to the authority of his legitimate superior. If this influence had been defined and analysed, the anomalies and contradictions in the present dispute, and in many other disputes of an analogous character all over the globe, for the last 31 years, would quickly disappear, and much that is otherwise appalling in it becomes plain to the commonest understanding. But as such elucidation is impossible, for a variety of reasons, we are compelled to confine ourselves to the merits of the matter on the surface: and even so judged, there cannot be a second opinion, nor, virtually, is there a second opinion, that this Brazilian episode is destined to take rank in the 19th century of British diplomacy as something to which another generation will point as evidence of a madness misrule, and a stunted intellegence in the latter half of the nineteenth century.—Liverpool Albion

THE POLISH REVOLUTION.

From Poland news continues to arrive of the most distressing and painful character—painful, however, not because of any serious reverses on the part of the insurgents, but in consequence of the frightful atrocities perpetrated by the Russian soldiery, under the direction, and in many cases in the presence of their officers. The execution of Count Plater at Wilna, and of Konarski, a Capuchin friar, at Warsaw, under the authority of the Grand Duke Constantine, is said to have wrought the insurgents up to a pitch of intense excitement The former of these, who was a member of a distinguished and noble family in poland, was ingloriously hung like a common malefactor, but without trial or any more suspicion of complicity with the insurgents, a quantity of rope having been found upon his estate of which he had no knowledge. The Nani-nal Government, it is now fed upon the faith of a private letter, has warned the Grand Duke that it will no longer responsible for his safety a very significant hint, illustrative of the state of affairs in Warsaw

The insurgents are said to have defeated the Russians at Nagoszow and in Lithuania; and from the same source, we regret to be informed of further atrocities on the part of the Russian officers. In Cracow, General Tell ordered a wealthy Jew to receive 250 lashes, because he had a lodger in his house who was supposed to make uniforms for the insurgents. The Jew died two hours afterwards. By command of the same officer, the state forests, comprising 73⅓ acres of full grown timber were consumed next day

The Polish National Government—says the 'Opinion Nationale'—will note precisely pass though. There were no longer any Russians in Poland. It commands in the capital throughout the whole kingdom, and as far as the banks of the Dnieper, and its orders are better executed than those of the Grand Duke, although he is considered to reign at Wrsshw, and that fact does honour both to the Revolutionary Government and to the Polish people.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to hear that Captain Harrison broke his arm fately in a four-race at Bl gara

ENGLAND AND DENMARK

Until it was known that Prince George of Denmark would accept the vacant throne of Greece, so much opinion prevailed in the capital that it was necessary to have the National Guard under arms day and night. The Press says it is the strongest that Princess Helena, the third daughter of Queen Victoria, is to become the wife of Prince William of Denmark, now King of the Greeks.

Prussia and the German Confederation threaten a blockade the Danish ports, for the S-Holstein difficulty, but it is thought England will lend some influence in favor for her new domestic ally.

MEXICO

The Spanish journals are of opinion that the French troops will be withdrawn from Mexico after they shall have dictated terms to the vanquished party, and it is also said to be certain that a Spanish plenipotentiary is on the point of being despatched there to take part in the negotiations which will shortly open at the village Mexican coinage, bearing the profile of Maximilian, is in place in the Paris mint. A French war ship, with a corps of engineers on board, is about to be sent to the Mexican mines. The war ships will be kept ready for despatch to Mexico in case of require.

THE IONIAN REPUBLIC.

The union of the Ionian Isles with the kingdom of Greece is creating a great sensation among the inhabitants of those islands, who are opposed to the union. This renders the prospect of the commencement of his sovereignty by the King very gloomy as the first step in the insurrection, even before the arrival, is the defiance and a probable attack upon Paxlay, which that ki gdom will repel with a manly and determined spirit. No regency is to be established in Greece, but the King will take the reins of government immediately on his arrival in that country.

LOCAL EVENTS.

TEN PER CENT.—We calculate the Buenos Ayres Bonds will suffer a decline to this amount on the return of Messrs. Muir and Rumbull, after the strangulation of the Chascomus project.

WATER SUPPLY—Fifty dollars reward is offered to any person who can inform the public what the Municipality has done with the various schemes submitted for competition.

RINCON DE AJO.—It is pleasing to announce that the Bishop has granted permission to the travelling Town priest to christen and marry the Indians of this district, who were unable to attend the 25 leagues (to Dolores) in search of a minister.

ARGENTINE CONSUL.—We learn that the gentleman who fills this office at New York is not without friends of the name. An American Argentine gentleman of this city, and member of the legal profession, who is about to visit the States on business, will probably prove more apt for the employment.

THE COSMOPOLITE.—This resuscitated Graveyard, London, June 14th, with bodilits type and 9 0 reams paper, for the 'Standard.' The new Customs tariff, taxing printing materially, will cost this Society August 1st, no less than £1,000 a year, against the time to come £ 7,000 or £8,000 dollars July

On 'change.

July 28.

Although the Holan opened at eleven o'clock, there was nothing done in ounces for the first hour. At ten minutes past twelve the first sale was made at a dollar and a half increase over yesterday's closing price, namely 437. Ounces indeed very stiff at open ing, and went up a half dollar. At one o'clock they fell back, and were selling at 437. They suddenly, however, regained their figure, and closed firm at 437 ½, buyers. Coin sales, 2220.

Nine thousand six hundred and fifty ounces were sold on time, at the undermentioned rates. It is worthy of notey that the sales for the end of the year to-day were five dollars over yesterday's price. Sales at short dating at current prices were extremely difficult to effect, and it was remarked that on time there were more buyers than se lers.

The leaving of the packet this after noon made things rather dull on the Bolsa. Mr Rogers, one of our leading American merchants, who went in her has accompanied to the mole head by a host of friends. He purposes sojourning a few months in England and the Sit-tes, and expects to return in about ten months

This afternoon we received the welcome intelligence that neither Mr Rumbold nor Mr Muir would leave by the packet. On 'Change people regretted the supposed departure of these gentlemen, and expressed their opinions pretty freely respecting the conduct of the government in the matter. It to be hoped that the committee will at once report upon the contract, either one way or the other as these perpetu l delays and procrastinations cannot be tolerated much longer. The legislature will soon decide whether £700,000 fresh capital shall be brought into the country or not

The unanimous decision of the National Debt will take place on Saturday next, at the Bolsa, and the interest and sinking fund will be paid at the Main Bank. It is said that the interest alone will amount to nearly three ounces, without taking into account the bonds which may be drawn

We cannot regard the payment of three sums in ounces as calculated in any to influence the price of gold, as even if the contract be put in tangible to meet the payments, parties to whom they will be paid will more than probably re-sell the ounces they receive.

We call attention to the two commercial notices in another column—one from the house of Messrs. Brownell and Co., and the other that of Mr. H J. Hopes.

The Cuen de Moneda has at last published its balance sheet for June. It is unnecessary to observe that for all practical purposes this statement is no earthly use whatever now, as people went to know more about the workings of the Bank which ended with June. Sor. Lemingez might exercise a little laudable interference if he would compel the directors to publish their accounts in the beginning of each month. But if the Bank is behind hand, our Finance Minister is just the reverse. We refer to this evening's "Nacional" the settlement of the foreign claims by Minister Sarde.n. If the Minister seems to have forgotten that we are on July, at his office ammunication is dated 23rd August, 1863.

The Congress arrived to-day from Colonia. Flores, it is said, has fled to the interior. Congress has ratified the appointment of Sor. Stamboulo as Minister of the U S.
